RISK ON SUGAR.

Secretary Risk is wonderfully alive on the sugar question. He was in Milwaukee on Saturday and was interviewed in regard to the experiments of the agricultural department in manufacturing sugar from sorghum. He made the statement that some 35,000 acres of land have been planted in sorghum cane, and the entire chemical corps of the department, twenty-six expert chemists, have been turned loose on the product to make tests; and that a few days ago he received advices from them that the cane had yielded splendid results, some of it showing 16 per cent of saccharine matter, whereas 12 per cent is sufficient to enable the profitable production of sugar.

In order to show the great possibilities of sorghum cane, Governor Risk said: If the sorghum cane produces 12 per cent of saccharine matter, said he, the cost of the sugar can be brought down to 3 cents a pound. Were it not for the fuel problem in Kansas, it would be shaved down to 2 cents. There is no profit in operating a small mill—for instance a twenty or fifty ton mill. Take a manufacturing season of sixty days and a two-mile field would supply the cane nicely for such a mill. Now plant a two-hundred and fifty ton-mill every two miles in Kansas, and look at the enormous production of sorghum sugar that there would be in that state alone.

The Gazette has frequently remarked that there is no industry in this country which so much lacks development as that of manufacturing sugar from sorghum cane or the sugar beet. France and Germany have made wonderful strides in this industry while the United States has been practically idle. If Secretary Risk can inspire enterprise and enthusiasm in this important branch of industry, he will be a public benefactor. His movements in this matter will be watched with deep interest, and with the hope, of course, that he will be successful in his efforts to increase the production of sugar from sorghum cane.

NO EXTRA SESSION.

A Washington dispatch says that a cabinet meeting was held on Saturday at which it was decided not to hold an extra session of congress. The dispatch goes on to say that the impression abroad that Secretary Windom's opposition to the extra session movement carried the day, and that the politicians of the cabinet, Blaine, Windom and Risk, the men whose judgment is considered best on a question of political expediency, are understood to have been opposed to an extra session from the start, and although Blaine and Risk were not present to-day, their influence, coupled with what Windom said, decided against an extra session. There has been at no time this summer a well defined opinion among politicians here who are not anxious about some speakership candidate that there will be an extra session; but there has been a considerable pressure by house members and those who fear that republicans would lose control of the house if some strong measure were not taken to prevent it. But those who have looked at the situation from the standpoint of the real, practical benefit to be gained by the republican party, have been firmly of the opinion that there should be no extra session.

There are always two sides to a story, and the public, especially the grand army boys, will be very glad to hear that General Sherman had no trouble whatever with the Phil Sheridan Post, of Chicago. It was reported by Sherman's brother that the general was ill treated on the case between Milwaukee and Chicago by the Sheridan Post, that he was driven from his seat and treated like a dog. General Sherman saw the fuss in the newspapers after he reached New York, and writing to John L. Mitchell, of Milwaukee, he said:

"There was no trouble at all. We paid our own way and I took the precaution to secure two reserved seats in the parlor car of the train leaving Milwaukee Thursday after the grand army convention. The seats were paid for. When we went to the depot the agent showed us to a parlor coach and seated us. "After we were comfortably settled the agent pointed out several other chairs which he said had been reserved for us. I did not understand it, but I was satisfied that the old soldier boys would give me anything I wanted, and as it never will do at all to look a gift horse in the mouth, I accepted the situation. At the suggestion of this railroad agent I invited several of my friends who had not received any accommodations. Among others I had Henderson of Nebraska and General Arthur of Chicago, seated near us. "The next instant almost the coach was filled by a bustling throng and I saw W. O. Curtis, commander of Phil. Sheridan Post, of Chicago, distributing tickets for seats. Soon the colored porter came in and told us that no had taken the wrong seats. He guided us to the car forward, where the two seats reserved for myself and brother were found all right. "General Sherman's brother must be a crank, or an hot-headed, unmanly sort of a fellow, to slander the Sheridan Post in the manner he did. His newspaper attack on the grand army boys were simply outrages because they were false from beginning to end.

At the northwestern conference of colored Methodist preachers, now in session at Milwaukee, an address was adopted including the following paragraph: "We appeal to the congress of the United States to enact such laws as will once and forever do away with the injustice suffered by our people in the south. If the colored citizen cannot be allowed his vote, then the section that refuses him that privilege should be deprived of representation in the national congress. A white man in the south should not be allowed twice or thrice the representation of a white man in the north."

The point expressed in the two last sentences of the foregoing address has been frequently discussed in the Gazette. The constitution makes it the plain duty of congress to remedy the gross evil the colored preachers complain of. The constitution plainly says—article XIV, section 2—that representatives shall be apportioned among the several states according to their respective numbers, and so on; but when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for president, or representatives in congress, is denied to any male inhabitants of such state, the basis of such representations therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens 21 years old in such states. By the political outrages in the south, that section of the Union has twice or three times the representation in congress and in the electoral college that the north has.

The way the democrats work things down in Louisiana is illustrated by the following little table of figures, showing the vote in the Third district of that state from 1880 to 1888:

	Rep.	Dem.	Majority
1880	12,501	12,395	106
1882	7,453	5,594	1,859
1884	14,023	13,528	495
1886	11,092	14,752	3,660
1888	6,381	18,354	12,973

There is a large republican majority in that district, and with anything like fair play, the republicans would carry it; but they were demoralized by threats of violence, and the vote was found wanting. It is a mighty question as to how long this outrageous condition of things shall last.

John L. Sullivan wants to run for congress in one of the Boston districts. He thinks the democrats will nominate him. It would not be a strange thing for Boston to elect such a man as Sullivan to congress. While he is a drunkard, a prize-fighter, a wife beater, a gambler, and several other things of a similar character, these do not make him offensive to the average democrat in Boston. In fact these traits of character will give him strength in the modern Athens.

The Evening Wisconsin makes the announcement that there is a strong probability the Hon. Elihu Colman, of Fond du Lac, will be appointed United States district attorney. The Gazette sincerely hopes that this is true. If Mr. Colman cannot get the Fond du Lac post office, then he should have the district attorneyship. He deserves the best that can be given him.

The difference between the two—Governor Lowrey ordered the Sullivan-Kill prize fight not to take place, but it did all the same. Governor Hoard ordered the Conley-Carroll fight not to take place, and it was declared off.

A Cat's Suicide. A tabby cat belonging to the family of David R. Paul, Wallingford, Pa., is reported to have committed suicide while grieving over the loss of her family of five kittens that had been drowned in order to keep down the cat population. When the old cat missed her offspring she went tearing over the house, showing her great distress by loud meowing. Failing to find the kittens after a long search, she went up to the third story and deliberately jumped out on the porch roof below. When picked up old tabby was dead, her neck being broken by the fall.

Taking the Bull by the Horns. The saying, "He took the bull by the horns," was verified at Portsmouth, Ohio, by George Eaves, who owns a beautiful tract of land just east of the city proper. He was crossing the field where in his bull is pastured, when the bovine became infuriated and rushed at him. Seizing the bull by the horns as it came within reach, and throwing his legs about its neck, Eaves was carried in this position across the field with the speed of the wind and into the fence, against which he was badly jammed. His injuries are regarded as fatal.

Poisoned by Nicotine. An inveterate smoker of Newburg, N. Y., has died from the effects of nicotine poisoning. His last illness had many of the symptoms of a cancer in the stomach. A post-mortem examination revealed the fact that so thoroughly had his system become impregnated with nicotine that the stomach and other organs of the body had become unable to perform their functions.

Our Population in 1890. S. L. Loomis, who in 1880 predicted the result of the census within 18,000 of the actual figures, is out with his prediction that the population of the United States in 1890 will reach 67,250,000, an increase during the last decade of more than 30 per cent. He is willing to bet, so it is said, that his calculations will not be upset.

The French Clergy and Elections. Paris, Sept. 9.—The Bishop of Marseille has issued a formal protest against the circular recently issued by the minister of justice in which the minister reminded the clergy that they are prohibited by law from taking part in elections. The bishop affirms the rights of priests to intervene in elections and other political affairs.

Longest Draw-Span in the World. NEW LONDON, Conn., Sept. 8.—The draw-span of the Thames river bridge, on the New York, Providence & Boston railroad, was swung into place yesterday afternoon. The elevations and connections were exactly as calculated. This is the longest draw-span in the world.

Yellow Fever in Vigo, in Spain. MADRID, Sept. 8.—Yellow fever is raging at Vigo, a seaport town in the Province of Pontevedra.

THE CRIMINAL RECORD.

A HORSE-THIEF IN A MOB'S HANDS.

A Negro Youth Lynched in Missouri—Convicted of Manslaughter—Broke Jail—Various Crimes.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 9.—Saturday night a race riot broke out in the lower part of Newcastle, locally known as Dobbinville, between gangs of Irishmen, Poles, and Slavacks employed in the Tasker iron works. A Hungarian, Francis R. Jankovsky, was shot in the heart and instantly killed by some of the Irish rioters and an Irishman by the name of Owen Kavanagh was stabbed in ten or eleven places by an unknown Hungarian. Kavanagh will recover. The rioting was the outcome of bad feeling that has existed among the different nationalities ever since the entrance of Poles and Slavacks into the mills nearly two years ago. Thirty-three of the Slavacks have been arrested and warrants will be issued for the Irish participants, who a preliminary hearing before Mayor Hanson this afternoon showed, were the aggressors. The evidence thus far indicates that Jankovsky was trying to escape from several intoxicated Irish rioters, when one of the latter fired a shot-gun, the lead passing through Jankovsky's heart. Five Irishmen, two Hungarian men, and a Hungarian woman also received wounds from shotguns and missiles in the melee.

LOCKED IN A BURNING BARN.

Vigilantes Attempt to Punish a Man Accused of Incendiarism.

LANCASTER, Pa., Sept. 9.—Wrightsville, a small town on the Susquehanna river opposite Columbia, this county, was a scene of terror last night. The police station and five barns were destroyed by incendiary fires. After the first fire a vigilance committee patrolled the place, but failed to prevent the other fires. The last occurred early this morning, at which James Flester, alias "Reddy" McCreary, was seized on suspicion of being the incendiary and locked up in the burning building, from which, however, he succeeded in escaping. He was afterward arrested on the charge of arson and taken to the York county jail.

IN THE HANDS OF A MOB.

A Possible Lynching at Tower Hill, Near Fama, Ill.

PANA, Ill., Sept. 9.—S. S. Tato was arrested at Mattoon Saturday on suspicion of being the person who stole a horse from here three weeks ago. Constable Marsland of this city left Mattoon on the Bee line train yesterday morning with his prisoner en route to this city. At Tower Hill, six miles west of here the train stopped and was immediately surrounded by an excited gang of men, who boarded the train, overpowered Marsland, and took Tato from the train. It is supposed the men were members of the Tower Hill Horse company, but what disposition they made of Tato is unknown.

USING BOMBS IN IRELAND.

Valuable Property Destroyed by an Explosion on the Barry Estate.

DUBLIN, Sept. 9.—A bomb was exploded on Smith Barry's estate Sunday, demolishing the offices and destroying all the private papers and important documents. Four of Barry's tenants who have been boycotted for paying rent contrary to the contract, expressed their indignation at the public meeting and offered large compensation, but the meeting refused to remove the boycott.

Seized the Priest's Censer.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—James Corkery, who claims to be a teacher in the public schools at South Amboy, attended a 9 o'clock mass at the cathedral Sunday and was kneeling at the altar when Father Leaville at the head of the procession, swinging a censer, reached him. Corkery snatched the censer and flung it away, shouting "How dare you thrust that vile devotion down my throat?" He was arrested, and at the police court he said he was waging a war against superstition and did not propose to have "any doughnut gods" forced down his throat. He was committed as insane.

Dr. Powell Convicted of Manslaughter.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 9.—Dr. Llewellyn A. Powell was convicted of manslaughter by the jury in the case of the death of a woman, Mary Smith, at Redwood City, Cal., two years ago. Smith was editor of a paper at that city and published an article to which Powell took exception. When the men met a quarrel ensued in which Smith was killed. Powell was tried twice in Redwood City, but the jury disagreed both times. A change of venue was then taken to this city.

Lynched by Missouri White Men.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 9.—A mob of armed white men surrounded the jail at Columbia, Mo., early yesterday morning, overpowered Sheriff Evans, and took from his cell George Bush, a negro 17 years old, charged with assaulting a white boy, and hanged him from one of the windows of the court house.

Drank Commercial Alcohol.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 8.—W. F. Harrison, a convict in the Frankfort penitentiary, died of poisoning from commercial alcohol, which he had imbibed in the jail. He was found by the jailer in the paint shop, and carried the alcohol to his cell to drink at his leisure.

Three Horse-Thieves Break Jail.

CHAMBERLAIN, Dak., Sept. 9.—Three desperate horse-thieves last night broke jail here. The sheriff and a posse are after them and it is expected that trouble will ensue should they be overtaken as they are well armed.

Shot and Killed a Merchant.

BENNETT, Ind., Sept. 9.—Alexander Waggoner, a merchant in Silverville, a small town ten miles west of here, was shot and killed by Ira Cobb this morning. Cobb was arrested and placed in jail here.

JOHNSTOWN SCHOOLS.

It is Hoped That Money Will Be Raised to Keep Them Going Eight Months.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Sept. 9.—Although there is but little money in sight except that received from the State appropriation the school directors of Johnstown are determined to keep the schools open Sept. 30, and hope to raise funds enough to keep them open for a term of eight months. Considerable money is expected in response to the appeal recently made for help.

For many years the schools here have been kept open for a term of eight months.

Sioux Chiefs to See the Great Father.

CHAMBERLAIN, Dak., Sept. 8.—A number of prominent Sioux chiefs are preparing for a trip to Washington, where they will confer with the authorities in regard to several questions that have arisen regarding the opening of their reservation.

TODAY.

"BURTON AND INDIA PALE ALBES" are acknowledged by judges to be superior to the Imported English Ales. They have the virtue of being strictly pure—nothing save malt and hops, and of the choicest quality, enters into their composition. Consequently all the nutritive tonic and restorative properties those ingredients are known to possess are found judiciously blended in these brands of ales. Brewery east end Milwaukee street bridge.

LOSING PUBLIC SYMPATHY.

Disaffection With the London Strikers for Refusing to Compromise.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Lord Mayor of London, Bishop Temple, and Charles Manning have written a joint letter in which they recount the negotiations conducted by them with the dock companies with a view to the settlement of the strike. They express surprise at the strikers' repudiation of the terms agreed to by the dock companies and declare their opinion that if the men continue the strike they will forfeit the sympathy hitherto accorded them. The strikers held another large meeting in Hyde Park Sunday. The proceedings were orderly. Mr. Burns in a speech declared it was a mistake to suppose that he had agreed to the proposal of the arbitrators. He invited the strikers to declare whether or not they would accept the proposal. A loud shout of "No" went up from the crowd. Mr. Burns, continuing, said the strike committee was prepared to hold out for three weeks more, but he believed the directors of the dock companies would concede the strikers' terms before another week had passed. Mr. Tillet visited the Lord Mayor in the evening and proposed new terms, to commence in October. The Lord Mayor demurred, but agreed to use his best endeavors to persuade the dock directors to agree to the terms. It is probable that a compromise will soon be arranged on the basis of increased wages beginning in November. Mr. Burns, continuing, said that he and Mr. Burns ought to have resigned when the men declined to accept the compromise. Mr. Tillet explained that the compromise was rejected because it would have created difficulty with the wharfingers, who had already conceded to 6 cents.

Foreign Contract Labor at Birmingham.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 9.—Fred Wagner arrived here from Birmingham, Ala., yesterday. He said he was a native of Chemnitz, Saxony, and had been in Birmingham under contract to work for a railroad, with 120 other laborers. They were promised $12 a month and board, but were paid only 5 cents a day. He could talk no English and knew nothing of the contract labor law. He had escaped with difficulty from Birmingham. He was given a pass and continued his trip toward New York.

OVER THE FALLS.

Steve Brodie Successfully Shoots America's Great Cataract at Niagara.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Sept. 8.—Steve Brodie accomplished a perilous feat Saturday, going over Niagara falls and coming out on the other side with a sprained ankle and no injuries. Brodie wore a rubber suit which he put on at a point 200 feet above the Canadian falls. His body was padded thickly with cotton batting, his rubber suit being inflated fifty-two inches around the waist and seventy-five inches around the chest. The head gear was also greatly inflated, and two steel bands were placed around his body for protection. At 9:30 o'clock Brodie entered the water with his paddle and a few moments later was caught by the current, and, waving his paddle to friends on the shore, was shot over the center of Horse-Shoe falls, passing with lightning rapidity over the outside of one of the volumes of water. He was quickly lost to view in the mist and foam and fully two minutes passed before he appeared below like a black speck bobbing and jumping about in the seething caudron of water.

Brodie was quickly caught in the rushing current and carried swiftly toward the American shore, and then was swept toward the Canadian shore, where the attendant swam out 200 feet with a rope, which he fastened to Brodie's waist. The attendant made many attempts to reach Brodie before he succeeded, but after fastening the rope swam ashore with Brodie, who was quickly lifted out. Brandy was poured on his temples and he was rubbed and chafed, but he remained unconscious for fully twenty minutes, blood oozing from his mouth, nose, and ears, probably from shock or concussion. Finally ammonia was used and Brodie gradually came to himself. He is not injured in any way seriously.

VAST IRRIGATION SCHEME.

Over 1,000,000 Acres in Washington and Montana to be Improved.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., T. Sept. 9.—J. D. McIntyre, irrigation engineer of Montana, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon and put two corps of engineers on the field to locate the lines of a vast irrigation system. A company consisting of a number of members of the board of directors of the Northern Pacific railroad, Charles A. Gregory, William J. Bryson, and G. A. Young of Chicago, and Walter N. Grainger, J. D. McIntyre, and Albert Klotzschmidt of Helena has entered into a contract and purchased over 1,000,000 acres of the Northern Pacific land in Washington and Montana, and has placed several parties of engineers in the field to lay out the lines of canal for construction. This will be the most extensive system of irrigation canals and storage reservoirs ever undertaken in the Northwest. The most active field of operation at present will be in the Yakima country, in Washington Territory, and between the West Gallatin and Madison rivers in Montana. In each of these localities the company has bought all the land within a radius of many miles and will build at once 100 miles of canal. It is understood the water and land will both be thrown open to settlers, as soon as the canals are built in Yakima county. The company has purchased all the railroad company's land between North Yakima and the Columbia river.

Miners Threaten to Strike.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 8.—A general strike is threatened in the mining district around Brockwayville, DuBois, Reynolds, and Punxsutawney and is liable to take place the coming week. The advance in the wage scale in the adjoining regions is the ground of the trouble. Now that the coal trade is prosperous, and demands elsewhere have been successful, an effort has been made to secure a raise of from 5 to 10 cents in the Erie, Rochester and Pittsburgh collieries. The discontented miners number 5,000.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—A very disastrous fire broke out at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the mammoth sugar plant of Dick, Meyer & Co., on North Seventh and North Eighth streets, Williamsburg. The fire started with an explosion, the exact cause of which is not known. It was filled with very valuable machinery and the loss on the buildings and machinery is estimated at about $1,500,000. Within the building were 1,700 barrels of sugar valued at about $500,000, making a total loss of about $2,000,000. The property was insured for nearly the entire value of the plant and contents for nearly 1,000,000 pounds daily and about 20,000 barrels of sugar went up in smoke. During the progress of the fire Martin Schmidt was burned about the face, John Keller about the head, and George Swallen had his arm fractured by a falling brick. Three other men were slightly injured. At 6 o'clock the flames were under control.

THE LATEST SCORES.

Result of Sunday's Games—The American Association.

Between 15,000 and 20,000 people went to Ridgewood Park, Long Island, to witness the game between the St. Louis and Brooklyn teams. The St. Louis team refused to play; in fact, the players did not even go to the field. When the time to begin arrived Umpire Goldsmith formally presented the game to the Brooklyn club by the score of 9 to 0. President Von der Ahe telegraphed President Byrne Saturday that he would not allow his team to play again in Brooklyn. President Von der Ahe complains that he has not been fairly dealt with in Brooklyn, and that his men are afraid to play there since their experience of Saturday. The Brooklyn manager will ask that St. Louis be dismissed from the association.
